

Technology: Past, Present and Future

Reading and Writing

Assignment: Using the chart, compare (same) and contrast (different) ONE of the following tools: (a) books (tablets), (b) data storage, (c) phone, (d) television, (e) computer, (f) radio, or (g) camera.

Tools
Compare (same)
Contrast (different)

Write a summary paragraph:

The _____ (tool) and _____ (tool) are the same.

_____ (pronoun) are _____ (term to compare).

Both _____ (noun / nouns) _____ (verb)

_____. The _____ (tool) and the _____ (tool) are _____ (term to compare).

_____ (pronoun) _____ are (term to contrast).

They _____ (verb) _____.

Speaking and Listening

Does technology help you learn?

Technology and learning

I think	I / we must I / we should I / we need to I / we have to	use computers in school. _____ study with a tablet. _____
I believe	I / we must I / we should I / we need to I / we have to	_____ _____ _____

Student 1: I (learn) (do not learn) with technology. I think I / we must _____.

Student 2: I think I / we should _____.

Students 1: Yes. I think I / we need to _____.

Student 2: Okay. I think I / we have to _____.

Student 1: No. I believe I / we must _____.

Student 2: I believe I / we should _____.

Students 1: Yes. I agree. I believe I / we need to _____.

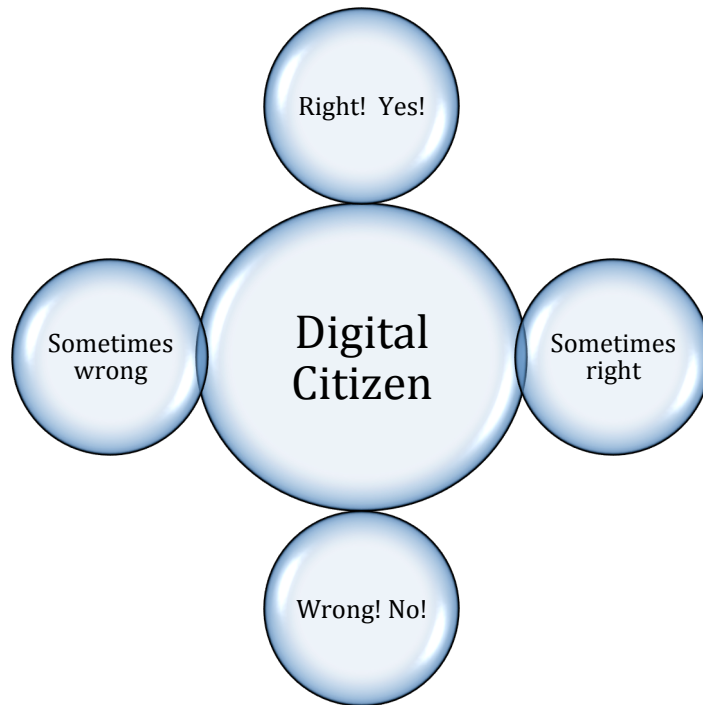

Student 2: Okay. I believe I / we have to _____.

Student 1: Thank you, _____ (Student 2).

Student 2: Thank you, _____ (Student 1).

Challenge Assignment: Digital Citizens – THINK

It is right because....	It is wrong because...
Sometimes it is wrong because...	Sometimes it is right because ...

(a) A student sends a text to another student. The text says: “You are crazy. We are going to get you after school.”	(b) A student puts a video on Youtube. The video is from school. The video is about students playing in class.
(c) A student sends a text to another student. The text says” “This is Juana’s locker password 45 29 01.”	(d) A student opens a Facebook page. She keeps her setting private.

(e) Two students are texting answers from a test in class. <hr/>	(f) Two students are texting an assignment in class. <hr/>
(g) A student answers a blog post in his first language (not English). Not everyone in class can read the blog. <hr/>	(h) A student downloads a movie and shares it with his friends. <hr/>
(i) A student gets a call from his mother. He answers his cell phone in class. <hr/>	(j) A student sends a text message to another student in class: “Meet me after school.” <hr/>
(k) A student copies and pastes information from a website. The student does not give credit to the writer of the website. <hr/>	(l) A student has a file on a USB drive that is infected. The student uses the USB drive on a school computer. <hr/>
(m) A students posts a selfie on Instagram. The student writes “I look too cute!” <hr/>	A student posts a picture on Facebook. The picture shows the students bottom. <hr/>